

In 1898, the spirit of Masonic charity and the need to assist the widows and orphans of Masons led to the creation of the Masonic Homes of California. Today, California Masonic Assistance continues to protect and nurture the most vulnerable members of our fraternal family through compassionate, values-based care, helping members age successfully at all stages of life.

Masonic Home at Union City

Founded in 1898 and located on 267 acres in the San Francisco Bay Area, our first residential community continues to provide independent living, assisted living, memory care, and skilled nursing care to about 300 senior residents.

Masonic Home at Covina

Originally established in 1909 as an orphanage, the 33-acre Masonic Home at Covina in Southern California provides independent and assisted living for about 80 seniors in a neighborhood setting.

Masonic Senior Outreach

Our senior outreach services connect eligible members of our California fraternal family with the services and resources they need to stay healthy and safe in their homes or in retirement facilities in their home communities.

Masonic Family Outreach

Our family outreach services help California Masonic families deal with a variety of complex life challenges including the impact of divorce and job loss. Broad, flexible services reach families in their home communities.

California Masonic Foundation

Formed in March 1969. California Masonic Foundation's mission is to make a profound difference through support for education. CMF invests in California's communities and its future with programs that touch the lives of thousands across the state each year. These programs include statewide support for early literacy, middle school math, and pathways to college or careers.

Acacia Creek

Acacia Creek opened April 2010 in Union City and is a continuing care retirement community for non-Masons and Masons, their wives and widows. Acacia Creek enriches the independence, well-being, and security of its residents through exceptional services and care based on Masonic values.

California Masonic Memorial Temple

California Masonic Memorial Temple owns the building at the top of San Francisco's Nob Hill which houses the headquarters for the Grand Lodge and other affiliates along with administrative offices, a library and museum of Freemasonry, and an auditorium and public spaces. Since opening in 1958, CMMT has hosted concerts, entertainment, graduations, immigration proceedings, and private functions. It was formed in 1954.

Nob Hill Masonic Center, Inc.

A California for-profit corporation, Nob Hill Masonic Center was formed in October 2006. NHMC operates a public parking garage located in the lower levels of the CMMT building.
