Oncology Nursing Certification Program

Program Information, Guidelines, and Application

Background

By Your Side was founded in 2010 by William and Linda Bray – a past grand master of the Masons of California and his wife – in order to answer a critical need for oncology nurses statewide. The program seeks to make a profound difference in the lives of cancer patients and their families by putting oncology certified nurses by their side.

Since a single oncology certified nurse reaches hundreds of patients, the Masons of California will provide comfort and hope for thousands of Californians by bringing more oncology certified nurses to care facilities throughout the state.

Program Description

Oncology nursing certification demonstrates professionalism, competency, experience, and baseline knowledge in this highly specific field, and imparts confidence to patients, patients' families, and caregivers.

Unfortunately, recent statistics have demonstrated that the vast majority of nurses providing oncology care in California have not obtained their oncology nursing certification. By Your Side is intended to increase the number of certified nurses in oncology, and serves nurses applying for their oncology certification and those pursuing advanced certification.

Grant Information

By Your Side grants are designed to cover the Oncology Nursing Certification Corporation (ONCC) application fee and a 16-week online review course. Amounts are determined by applicants' eligibility for employer-sponsored reimbursement, as follows:

- Full funding - $1,100** grants are available to nurses who are not eligible to receive reimbursement for testing costs through their employers.
- Partial funding - $500 grants are available to nurses who are eligible to receive reimbursement for testing costs through their employers.

** If you are applying for full funding you must include employer certification otherwise your application will be returned without processing.

Eligibility Requirements

Applicants must demonstrate the following:

- Current employment in the state of California as a registered nurse, providing care to cancer patients.
- ONCC Exam Results Notification obtained within the last 90 days. Possession of the ONS Chemotherapy and Biotherapy Provider Card does not qualify for this program. Please refer to the example on the following page.
- Ability to meet test requirements for the OCN, CPHON, CBCN, AOCNP, AOCNS, or BMT as outlined by the ONCC. Test requirements, which include necessary practice hours, and online registration are available at the ONCC website: www.oncc.org.

Professional Performance (8)	[Progress bar]	[Progress bar]	Points Not Required

Please retain this report. It identifies the content areas that form your Learning Plan for your next certification renewal.

You must earn professional development points in the content areas marked "Points Required" in the table above. The number of points that must be earned in a specific area is the number in parentheses next to the title of the content area. Twenty-five points is the minimum required number of points. Therefore, if your required total is less than 25 you may earn the difference in any of the areas listed above, including those marked "Points Not Required." If all content areas are marked "Points Not Required" you may earn the 25 points in any of the content areas listed.

Learn more about the activities that are acceptable for points at <http://oncc.org/ILNA>. Please note that you may choose to complete accredited CE activities, publications, presentations, or academic education to earn points. Your Learning Plan identifies the content areas in which points must be earned; it does not identify specific educational programs to be completed.

You will record your points on your Learning Plan on LearningBuilder. ONCC will send you an email in a few weeks when you can access LearningBuilder. Keep documentation (e.g., CE certificates) of professional development activities you complete. You will need this information when recording your points on LearningBuilder. You will be required to submit this documentation through LearningBuilder when you submit your renewal.
