Masons of California

November Lesson: Hospitality

HOSPITALITY AS A MASONIC DUTY

MASTER

Brethren, tonight Brother ___ will reflect with us on hospitality.

BROTHER

Brethren, hospitality is more than politeness—it is a Masonic obligation. To extend warmth, welcome, and dignity to others is to practice brotherly love in its purest form.

Consider this: What made you feel welcomed when you first visited this lodge?

(Allow comments.)

Now: What simple actions can we take to make visitors and prospects feel truly at home?

(Allow comments.)

BROTHER

Brethren, hospitality costs little but means much. Let us extend it generously.

MASTER

Thank you, Brother.
